

Live, Work and Play as a Medical Lab Technologist in Saskatchewan!

Saskatchewan is waiting for you. We have many Medical Laboratory Technologist (MLT) opportunities in rural and urban communities.

The benefits of living working as an MLT in Saskatchewan are many, but here are a few:

- you'll earn a competitive wage ($34.19-41.96/hour) plus shift and weekend premiums;
- eligibility for the provincial graduate retention program (up to $6,000);
- northern living allowances;
- a comprehensive benefit plan; and
- depending on your preference, permanent, temporary, part-time and full-time positions.

Check out the opportunities waiting for you right now:

www.healthcareersinsask.ca/mlt

Log in, create a profile, and apply today!

NOTE: All applicants must be certified by the Canadian Society for Medical Laboratory Science (CSMLS); licensed and registered by the Saskatchewan Society of Medical Laboratory Technologists (SSMLT); and, have successfully obtained a Medical Laboratory Technology diploma.